Nash Lecture Proves to be Charming

On April 1, 2006 we were treated to a “charming” lecture by Martin Nash, “The charming Cheat”. Mr. Nash is one of the top cardmen in the world, and for years has been one of the most popular performers in the Magic Castle’s Close-up Showroom. His technical ability and routining are unsurpassed.

Using his carefully cultivated Hollywood image as a gambler and card cheat, Martin A. Nash has entertained and fooled audiences all over the world.

We witnessed some of his wonderful Card Magic such as; Pseudo Marked Deck Sequence: The four aces are lost in the deck face-up. You then deal a round of poker dealing all the face-up aces to yourself using the Nash Multi-Center. Some of the sleight and moves he discussed were: Nash Multiple Shift variations and the Nash Center Deal

This is Martin’s last tour. After the tour, there will be no more lectures or shows. We were truly fortunate to witness this Master at work!

Pavel Magic Lecture

Thursday, May 25, 2006 - 7:30 P.M.
Executive West

Have you ever dreamed of being a magical inventor?

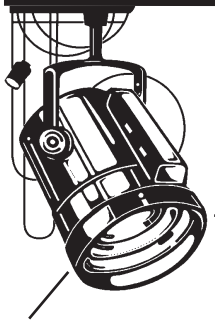

This brand-new lecture from Pavel may offer a solution. Pavel’s brand-new lecture deals precisely with the subject “how to invent a new trick”. It features a large range of his latest amazing creations using general props such as ropes, cards, silks, balloons, clothespins, ribbons, colored discs, bills... Not less than two dozen different effects are performed and explained.

All are clearly detailed in a brochure 100% MAGIC – 100% PAVEL. These entirely Illustrated lecture notes provide to every attendee a welcome memory aid for the large extent of the items shown and the description of all the props necessary for their realization.

If you weary of card or coin trick lectures and you are seeking an impressive and commercial stand-up stuff, you can’t afford to miss this lecture. No matter what kind of magic you enjoy, you will certainly see and learn something new and completely different.

Pavel’s Magic has taken him all around the World and now he’s ready to share his favorite creations - and his exuberant imagination that makes it all work - with you.

Pavel is based in Geneva, Switzerland and lectures in English, French or German.

JERRY OLIVER

Spring is here and I'm sure many of you are like me and making plans for the summer. Perhaps you are considering a vacation and would like one that is filled with fun and entertainment. Well don't forget to include Louisville Ky. as a possible vacation site. I know that hundreds of magicians are contemplating this adventure. We are hosting the S.A.M. convention one of the biggest magic conventions in the world, July 12-15, 2006. The convention is being billed as a grand slam in Louisville. Just think of the money you'll save by vacationing in your home town, no air fare or high gasoline prices to pay for travel and your lodging is already taken care of. If you have an extra room in your home there is a possibility you could rent it out to another magician and even earn some extra cash. Just post a notice on the web and who knows you might find someone who doesn't like hotels that will take you up on the offer. This convention has much to offer for the whole family. Daily you will have over 30 dealers in the dealer's room, close-up shows, close-up and stage contest, daily lectures enhanced by big screen video, young members show, an international banquet and each evening the Gala shows featuring top professionals. Other activities include spouse's welcome party, special events for kids and a magical cruise on the Belle of Louisville. Cost for all the convention has to offer is only $195.00 for S.A.M. members or $225.00 for non members. Learn more by logging on to the convention web site at www.magicsam.com.

EDITORIAL NOTE:

Please have all articles for inclusion in the next bulletin issue to us by the 20th of the Month.

Tips from The Editor

Last month I made an error in the notes about submitting articles in all caps, the bulletin said "Do type in ALL CAPS," This should have read Do Not, because if you type in ALL CAPS, I have to retype it, and sometimes my fingers work so fast that I make mistakes--like last month!

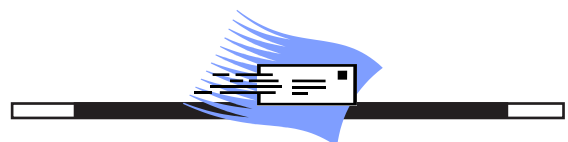

We were unable to get the bulletin out in time for the Martin Nash Lecture, I hope everyone remembered to look at the WebSite for upcoming lecture information. Make sure and put our website as one of your favorites, it's www.lmcmagic.com.

Mentioning the website, we have added LMC merchandise to our site as well as a message board where you can post messages through Google Groups.

You can get there by going to:
http://groups.google.com/group/LMC_Magic

You can only view and post to this by invitation only or by signing up through our website. This is a great place if you want to put up Magic for Sale ads, ask trick questions, etc.

Until Next Month, Mike Raymer
